

cillors, at one o'clock on Saturday next, and Council adjourned.

Wednesday, 28.—The ship Rochester encountered a tempest, shipped a heavy sea, Wilford Woodruff got thoroughly drenched; Willard Richards escaped under the bulwarks.

Saturday, May 1.—Elder Robert B. Thompson became associate editor of the Times and Seasons.

The first Regiment, first cohort of the Nauvoo Legion, consisting of four companies, was organized, and Captain George Miller was elected colonel; Captain Stephen Markham, lieutenant-colonel, and Captain William Wightman, major.

Organization
of the Legion.

The first regiment, second cohort, consisting of four companies, was also organized, and Captain Charles C. Rich was elected colonel, Captain Titus Billings, lieutenant-colonel, and Captain John Scott, major.

Also the second regiment, second cohort, consisting of four companies, was organized, and Captain Francis M.

the expense of the corporation; which was carried; and Alderman Daniel H. Wells, and Councillors Wilson Law and John T. Barnett were appointed a committee, and ten acres were ordered to be purchased.

I spoke at length on the rights and privileges of the owners of the ferry, showing that the City Council has no right to take away ferry privileges, once granted, without damages being paid to the proprietor; and also moved that an ordinance be passed to protect citizens killing

23 Vol. IV.

S SERMON ON INDIVIDUAL THE DOCTRINE OF ELECTION.

ingham Young, Heber C. Kim-Woodruff, John Taylor, George Willard Richards and family, of the ship Rochester, at Liver-Woodhouse (who delayed his nodate the Elders), bound for of 130 Saints.

married in England to preside continue the publication of the Hyde to pursue his mission to essor for the City of Nauvoo, led in this county many years, and kind disposition, he was

chester sailed.

gh Council of Iowa selected Nickerson Counselors to Pres-mith, in place of Reynolds-Lyman Wight, removed by James Emmett in the place of igh Council, Joseph C. Kings-V. Pitkin, removed to Nauvoo, ce of Erastus Snow, absent.

ed the City Council. Several moved that the Marshall be ndance of Aldermen and Coun-

New Burying Ground for Nauvoo.

ISTORY OF THE CHURCH.

353

clock on Saturday next, and Council ad-

8.—The ship Rochester encountered a l a heavy sea, Wilford Woodruff got ched; Willard Richards escaped under ay 1.—Elder Robert B. Thompson be-editor of the Times and Seasons.

ment, first cohort of the Nauvoo Legion, consisting of four companies, was organized, and Captain George Miller was elected colonel; Captain Stephen Markham, lieutenant-colonel, and Captain William Wightman, major.

The first regiment, second cohort, consisting of four companies, was also organized, and Captain Charles C.
Rich was elected colonel, Captain Titus Billings, lieutenant-colonel, and Captain John Scott, major.

Also the second regiment, second cohort, consisting of four companies, was organized, and Captain Francis M.
Higbee was elected colonel; Captain Nelson Higgins, lieutenant-colonel, and Aaron H. Golden, major.

I attended the City Council, and moved that the sympathies of the Council be tendered to the relatives of James Robinson, deceased, the late assessor and collector for the city, which was carried.

I also moved that a new burying ground be procured, outside the city limits, and purchased at the expense of the corporation; which was carried; and Alderman Daniel H. Wells, and Councillors Wilson Law and John T. Barnett were appointed a committee, and ten acres were ordered to be purchased.

New Burying Ground for Nauvoo.

I spoke at length on the rights and privileges of the owners of the ferry, showing that the City Council has no right to take away ferry privileges, once granted, without damages being paid to the proprietor; and also moved that an ordinance be passed to protect citizens killing

23 Vol. IV.